Robert Sprague you received $23,000 from the Wexner team. You know you need to donate this to charity.

I was recently made aware of donations to my campaign from Leslie Wexner and his wife, Abigail Wexner.

As more information has come to light, and as the distraction surrounding this has continued, our campaign has decided to donate any funds received from the Wexners to charities that empower youth leaders and help families facing food insecurity.

It is my sincere hope that federal law enforcement continues to seek justice, and that anyone associated with the crimes of Jeffrey Epstein is prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
